REPORT OF BUILDING INSPECTOR

It is with pleasure that I submit the first report as building inspector for the Town of Chesterfield. I say this because first, I was quite surprised when I received my appointment from the selectmen, and second since the first year in any town or city serving in this capacity can be very successful or a complete failure. I knew this from experiences I had encountered with building inspectors in surrounding towns and cities in past years.

I have issued fifteen permits to this date, eleven of which are completed jobs that comply with the regulations as set up by the Town of Chesterfield. In all instances I have found none to be other than cooperative.

I wish to thank the selectmen for having drawn up and made available printed regulations and permits which definitely state in easy-to-understand manner just what the building regulations are. I also want to thank the board of adjustment for their cooperation when I felt their services were needed to comply with regulations as voted at our last annual meeting.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE E. JOSLIN.

Expenses	8 05
Balance	$11 45

Nineteen fifty-six seems to have been a very successful one for the library. We have continued to make most of the best-sellers available to the patrons. We have had more adult patrons than there have been for several years and, accordingly, the circulation of books was high. At the present time, arrangements are being made with the school to have the library open for a short period during the week for the school children.

The facilities of the library are available for all residents of the town on Saturdays from 2-5 and 7-9.

Respectfully submitted,

AUDREY C. ERICSON,

Librarian.

THE SCHOOL BOARD REPORTS

School opened in September with over 180 pupils enrolling under seven teachers. The board wishes to welcome Mrs. Doris Parker, Miss Julie Kiskionis and Mr. Edward Fairbanks to the staff and appreciates the excellent work they have been doing.

With the approach of January, the board must always face the preparation of a budget for the new school year and find answers to various problems. It is difficult to prepare a realistic budget for expenditures which do not develop for a full year, especially when various problems complicate matters. These problems should be of interest to all thoughtful Chesterfield citizens. The first one is that concerned with the teaching staff. Today the supply of capable teachers in New Hampshire continues to decrease until some near-by schools are now operating without a full staff. As the teacher supply decreases, school districts must offer higher salaries to retain regular staff members and to attract capable replacements. Even though Chesterfield has tried to meet this problem in the past, the fact is that beginning teachers from our teachers colleges are receiving larger salaries than many of our experienced and capable local teachers.

A second problem of increasing importance is that connected with tuition for high school pupils. Brattleboro raised its tuition rates by $90 for next year, while Keene went up $40. The rate per year is now over $400 per pupil; and the increase in the budget for tuition alone is over $10,000. Little can be done about this cost except to see to it that all high school pupils attend regularly and attend to their lessons. Unnecessary absences must be reduced to a minimum when daily costs of tuition exceed $2.30 per pupil per day.

A third problem is that related to state aid for education. Educational costs continue to increase because the things we buy cost more and the burden on the local taxpayer is heavy. This will continue to be heavy until the people sent to the legislature in Concord approve a realistic state aid to education bill. The average local school district in the United States receives 40% of its funds from state sources, while New Hampshire receives only 4% state aid,—the lowest in the United States.

The one tragedy of the school year was the sudden passing of our respected school board member, Mr. Harold Putnam. Though Mr. Putnam was a man of many business interests and carried heavy responsibilities, he found the time to serve his community faithfully as a school board member and educational leader. The pupils and teachers of the Chesterfield School District have lost a kind, generous and understanding friend; and the community has lost a sympathetic and understanding leader. All of us could find in this man an excellent pattern of unselfish and devoted public service.

Respectfully submitted:

AGNES B. CHICKERING,

Chairman.

MIRIAM A. PUTNAM,

CLARA B. WELLINGTON,

School Board.

REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

The management, control and direction of public education cannot be allowed to become a static activity;—one where the school board and staff say, “Now that we have a fine school plant and a sound educational program, we can relax and maintain things as they are for a few years.” Such an attitude might be sound and work successfully if life in America also stood still. But life is changing rapidly as we enter the atomic age and changing political and economic events are pushing us forward into new and unknown areas of national life. Since these are the conditions we face, the school board and administration must be alert to see that Chesterfield pupils are provided with the proper tools of learning and conditions under which successful learning best takes place.

To this end, the school board approved the part-time of an Audubon Society teacher to give special lessons in natural science and conservation. Mrs. Wilson, our music supervisor, has also been employed an additional half day per week for music instruction. Another major area being studied by the board is that concerned with the employment of teachers. As the supply of capable teachers decreases and the demand increases, other areas attempt to attract our capable teachers away from Chesterfield. The best defense against the loss of experienced teachers is a salary schedule with a competitive salary scale and employment policies which offer our teachers good working conditions and security. The school superintendent is offering such a program to each district in the union and the Chesterfield board is actively engaged in its consideration.

There were several changes in the school staff during the past year. We lost the capable services of Mrs. Atema, and were fortunate in obtaining the services of Miss Julie Kiskionis, a highly-rated beginner from Keene Teachers College. Mrs. Bothwell reached retirement age and left us after many years of devoted service to the community. She was replaced by Mr. Ed. Fairbanks, who has been of real help with supervision and teaching. Miss Esther Grout accepted a better paying position in a neighboring community and was replaced by Mrs. Doris Parker, a teacher of real ability and experience. The entire staff has worked hard & well in preparing Chesterfield pupils with a sound foundation in the basic skills of learning and a preparation for success in high school and life. The administration of the school continues on a high level and I feel that the citizens of the community have a real right to be proud of their school.

I could not conclude this report without regretfully stating that the community lost a devoted public servant; the staff and pupils lost a sincere and generous friend and that I lost a respected and understanding advisor in the passing of our late school board member, Mr. Harold Putnam.

DR. CHARLES L. BOWLBY,
Superintendent.

CHESTERFIELD LUNCH PROGRAM REPORT

Jan. 1, 1956-Dec. 31, 1956

Mrs. Phyllis Henchey and Mrs. Barbara Aldrich successfully carried on the Hot Lunch Program during my absence in 1955-1956.

Due to the lack of Federal Funds, the reimbursement of 5c a Type A meal was cut to 4c for March and April. May was cut to less than 2c. There was no food reimbursement in June.

During the summer Mr. Bowlby bought a large size food freezer for half price. The Lunch Program paid $100 towards the purchase price.

The Program opened September 10, 1956 with Mrs. Phyllis Henchy as my full time assistant.

We serve an average of 152 children a day. Of these there are 15 free or reduced meals which are determined by the School Board, Mr. Decato, and Mrs. Warner. We are receiving 5c for each Type A meal at present.

Under the Special Milk Program we serve $\frac{1}{2}$ pt. and a cookie to about 115 children each afternoon. We receive 4c reimbursement for each $\frac{1}{2}$ pint milk served. The charge to the children is 10c a week.

From Jan. 1-Dec. 31, 1956 we received the following surplus commodities from the Government: butter, lard, canned pork and gravy, pork luncheon loaf, hams, peas, grapefruit sections, hamburger, concentrated orange juice, sweet potatoes, wheel cheese, process cheese, salad oil, eggs, dry beans, peaches, tomatoes, white flour, corn meal, peanut butter and turkeys.

I wish to thank the persons who have donated fresh vegetables to the Program. We have received carrots, beets, squash, string beans and cabbages.

I also wish to thank sincerely, Mr. Decato, the Teachers, Mrs. Henchey and Mr. Pickering for their help and cooperation in making the Hot Lunch Program a success.

REPORT OF THE PRINCIPAL

I herein submit my fourth annual report as principal of the Chesterfield School:

When the Chesterfield School opened its doors on September 5th, 1956 the enrollment was as follows:

Grade 1	25
2	27
3	23
4	34
5	17
6	26
7	13
8	30
Total	195

Mrs. John Parker, Miss Julie Kiskionis, and Mr. Edward Fairbanks are new members of the teaching staff for this school year. It is my opinion that the Chesterfield School has a group of teachers to be proud of. Each teacher works hard and long to prepare your children for further education and to take their place as members of society. Today it is becoming increasingly difficult to find teachers, let alone teachers of the high quality that we now possess. It would seem desirable, for the community and the school, to attempt to bring salary figures up to the level of Keene and Brattleboro. I can assure you that our teachers are as educationally well prepared and work just as hard if not harder than teachers in larger communities. One way of achieving some of the points mentioned would be to adopt a worthwhile salary schedule. Like the cost of living, costs of education have continued to rise and apparently will continue to do so in the foreseeable future. Investment in the education of your children is the wisest investment you can make.

Mrs. Marion Warner, the school nurse, has continued to achieve results due to devotion to her job and the co-operation of parents. She has conducted three very successful polio clinics during the past year in addition to her many other duties. Mrs. Warner spends at least one day each week, usually Monday, at the school.

Mr. William Carey, a student teacher from Keene Teachers College, has spent a full half year working in the areas of Science and Social Studies. He has proved himself to be a very capable young man in working with young people.

The local Parent Teachers Association has adopted a worth while project of landscaping the school grounds. Some grading has been done by the school board in conjunction with the overall plan. Great progress on the project is planned for the spring of 1957. The PTA is becoming increasingly important in our community. Attendance at meetings shows a definite interest in your school and its integral part of the community.

At the present time there is only one grade combination in the school, (grades 5 and 7). From an educational standpoint, combining grades is not an ideal situation. However, it appears that one additional teacher will be needed for the 1958-1959 school year. This will mean one teacher for each grade in the school.

Classroom facilities are adequate at the present time. To those of you who have attended school programs in the past three years, I need not point out the inadequacies of our present auditorium. If in the future it seems desirable to enlarge the auditorium it would be well to consider the possibility of remodeling the present building to include facilities for basketball.

The original section of the school plant has been used for six years. I have recommended to the school board that an attempt be made to redecorate the equivalent of two class rooms each year. This will save appropriating a large sum of money to paint the entire building at some time in the future. Two class rooms have been redecorated this year.

Due to lower rates of reimbursement from the state and somewhat smaller amounts of federal surplus commodities, it may be necessary to increase the per meal charge for the hot lunch program. This would seem more desirable than to allow the high quality of the present program to diminish. The program has been operating successfully under the able direction of Mrs. Marion Nurse and Mrs. Phyllis Henchey.

During the past year the school lost a friend who can never be replaced. Mr. Harold Putnam served nearly six years as a member of the school board and gave willingly of his time and energy to improve the educational facilities of our community.

Education is preparation for complete living, for citizenship in its broadest sense. Therefore it is imperative that members of the community, teachers, pupils, and school boards continue to work together in improving the educational facilities of the community. Co-operation is an important phase of success. The town of Chesterfield has shown a great willingness to co-operate in the past and I am sure it will continue to do so in the future.

GORDON E. DECATO,
Principal.
